

West Hartford LIFE

APR 11

Vol 13

Issue 12

Foundation raises $45,000

The annual West Hartford's Cookin' fundraiser brought in more than $45,000 to support the Foundation for West Hartford Public Schools. Three dozen celebrity chefs from government, the schools and the business community contributed their culinary talent.

More than 300 people attended the event and enjoyed entrees, appetizers, salads, soups and desserts. Silent and live auctions were also part of the evening's festivities. Event Co-Chairwomen were Amy Stephens Cabbage and Lisa Greene

Major sponsors were Gengras Motor Cars, Whole Foods Market, Bank of America, Bob's Discount Furniture and the Kaufman family, Bridgewater Chocolate, Shari Cantor, Falvey Line & Uniform Supply, Optometric Specialty Group & Dr. Peter Pegolo, Stop & Shop Supermarkets, Private Capital Group, Ratchford Eye Center LLC, Ried & Riefe PC and the West Hartford Education Association.

The annual West Hartford's Cookin' fundraiser brought in more than $45,000 to support the Foundation for West Hartford Public Schools.

